11 Defendants.

Case No. 2:14-cv-00043-APG-GWF

ORDER DENYING MOTION FOR CONTEMPT SANCTIONS

(Dkt. #131)

12 As part of an ongoing labor dispute, Teamsters has filed a motion for sanctions against 13 Allegiant Air.¹ The motion primarily consists of allegations that Allegiant did not comply with 14 the preliminary injunction I issued on July 22, 2014. According to Teamsters, Allegiant has 15 “done nothing ‘to better respect pilot seniority’ in compliance with this Court’s order. And the 16 result is that [Allegiant has] not provided basic ‘predictability’ as required by that same order.”²

17 On May 1, 2015, after a three-day evidentiary hearing in a related case, I issued an order
18 holding that Allegiant had indeed complied with the July preliminary injunction.³ Teamsters’
19 motion for sanctions is therefore denied as moot to the extent that it tries to fault Allegiant for 20 violating that injunction. The motion also contains references to misrepresentations Allegiant
21 allegedly made to me before I issued the injunction.⁴ I have set a hearing for later this summer to 22 address those allegations. If Teamsters can prove at that hearing that Allegiant misled me, it can 23 again move for contempt sanctions.

27 ³ (See Allegiant II, 2:15-cv-580-APG-GWF, Dkt. #33.)

1 IT IS THEREFORE ORDERED that Teamsters' motion for contempt sanctions (Dkt.
2 #131) is DENIED.
